From the East, Brethren:

We had a great month of April. We had a good EA Degree for Bro. Grant King. He has been ill recently and hopefully will be able to turn in his lecture by the next Stated Meeting. We also Elected to receive the first Degree, Mr. Keith Morris Waymire. His pre-degree orientation will be on the 10th, and EA Degree on the 24th. Yes, we are starting to get more active in Degree work.

But, that's not all that Sylvan Hills is doing. We had around 9 Brothers who represented our Lodge at the ALS walk. This month, we are going to try to raise awareness of a program providing service dogs to veterans. Our own Bro. Bob Grubbs is the recipient of one of these dogs, and gives programs about them all over western Arkansas. On May 19, he will give his presentation at the Lodge. Then we will have a hamburger cook-out, to raise some money to help Bob obtain a mobility vehicle. (He is essentially confined to a power wheel chair.) For more about Bob, visit: www.purposedrivendogs.com

On May 22nd, we will again meet the "Carry the Load" caravan as it treks through Little Rock, honoring veterans in remembrance of Memorial Day.

But, despite all the activity, I am again saddened to say that our Altar will be in Black for another month, honoring Bro. Terry Ballard, PM of Mt. Sinai.

Again, thanks for all the support from all of you. I still am missing the Brothers from Mt. Sinai.

Fraternally serving you,
David Tiner, WM

Brethren:

Several of you who received reminders to pay your 2018 dues with the 2nd Quarter Trestleboard have done so. THANK YOU! To the others, please consider sending yours in today. And finally, If you were one of the few suspended for non-payment at the end of 2017, it will never be easier to be reinstated than it is right now. Just send a check for the 2017 and 2018 dues, and you are back in!

WM Tiner has outlined our busy schedule for May. Sylvan Hills is "happening", Come be a part of it. As always, if I can be of service to you, just call or e-mail.

Fraternally, TJ Henwood PM - Secretary
