From the East, Brethren:

We had a good May. EA Degree for Brother Waymire. Raised some money and raised awareness of Service Dogs for veterans, and remembered those who have sacrificed for our nation at "Carry the Load". Also the 3rd Section for EA was well presented by RW Monty Fulmer. He did a great job! And four EA's learned more about being a Mason.

We had another petition turned in at the June Stated. Looking good for the upcoming months. Thanks to all for all the work you do.

Remember, Saints John night is on the June 25th at Big Rock. The officers will open and close Sylvan Hills Lodge at 5pm.

Brothers, it is going to be a Long Hot Summer, so please be safe. Remember our Brothers who are ill. Prayers for them all. I am still missing my Brothers from Mt. Sinai.

Again, thank you for your support.

Fraternally serving you,
David Tiner, WM

Brethren:

204 of our 217 members have paid their dues for 2018. THANK YOU! To the other 13, please consider sending yours in today. And finally, If you were one of the few suspended for non-payment at the end of 2017, it will never be easier to be reinstated than it is right now. Just send a check for the 2017 and 2018 dues, and you are back in!

We had a busy month in May, and it looks like we will be busy with degree work in the rest of the Summer and Fall. But, we lost two members in May as well. Unfortunately, we did not have current contact information for one of them, so we were not even able to offer a Masonic memorial to his family. Brethren, please keep your contact information current, and tell you family if you desire a Masonic Memorial. As always, if I can be of service to you, just call or e-mail.

Fraternally, TJ Henwood PM - Secretary
